Charter Point occasionally experiences door-to-door solicitors. Most try to sell a product or service, but some are scam artists, offering to test your tap water or asking pointed questions about your security alarm system. Occasionally a stranger may appear on your doorstep asking for handyman work. To discourage soliciting/peddling, scam artists and other undesirables (and to effect an arrest), you must post a document containing language set forth by Jacksonville Municipal Code 250.703 (Ord. 93-1761-1390, §1). Simply mentioning the No Soliciting sign posted at the neighborhood entrance is insufficient.

To discourage soliciting/peddling activity, prominently post the reverse of this card near your doorbell or in a window near or on your front door. To report a solicitor/peddler or other door-to-door activity. call the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office's non-emergency number: 630-0500. Be sure to provide a good description of the individual(s), vehicles, the entity they represent, etc., if possible. Note: Religious entities are exempt as solicitors under this Ordinance.

This card is approved for posting by the Charter Point Community Association.
